

Air to Air Plate Heat Exchanger Plenum Boxes

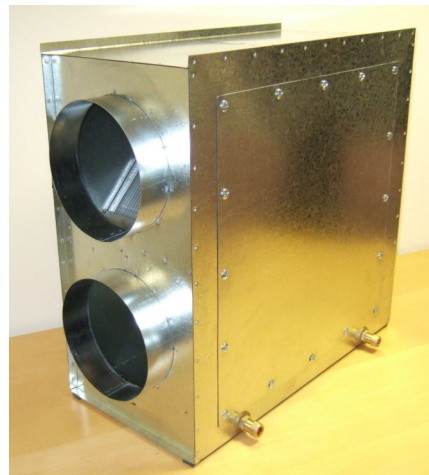

We provide Plenum Boxes for our range of Air to Air Plate Heat Exchangers. They are easy to install and can be retro fitted into your existing ductwork. Various connection sizes are available to suit your air flow and duct work configurations. Plenum boxes are available in both single stage and two stage versions.

Features

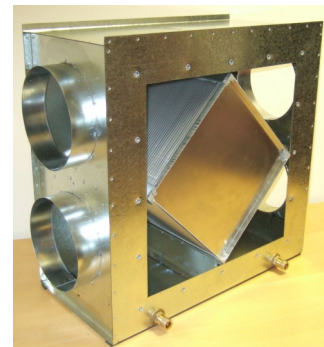

- Easy Access for removal and cleaning of Heat Exchanger.
- Integral drip tray with two connection points for draining of condensed water.
- Round or square connections in various sizes to enable easy installation.

Materials

- Galvanised steel - non corrosive air streams
- Stainless steel - corrosive air streams

Galvanised steel plenum box

Plenum box with access cover removed

